VALKYRIAN

1985

MISS TURLOCK H. S.

VALKYRIAN 1985

According to Norse mythology, the "Valkyrie" were the handmaidens of Okin, king of the gods. Legend holds that the Valkyrie hovered over battlefields and decided the fates of the warriors. In addition to choosing which Vikings would be victorious, the Valkyrie conducted the souls of slain heroes to Valhalla, the great hall of immortality.

This edition of the Vailsburg High School Valkyrian contains a legend of the warriors who are striving toward greatness en route to insuring a positive impact on our world. We trust that the Valkyrie will grant us the opportunity to achieve success. We hope that the generations who read this book will be able to enjoy and grasp our spirit. We have chosen to "MAKE OUR GOOD BETTER AND OUR BETTER BEST." Join us!

EXPLORING . . .

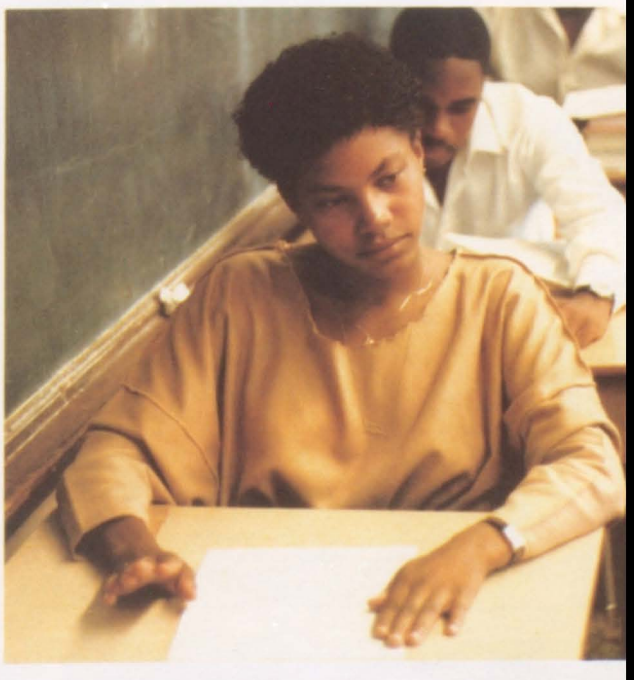

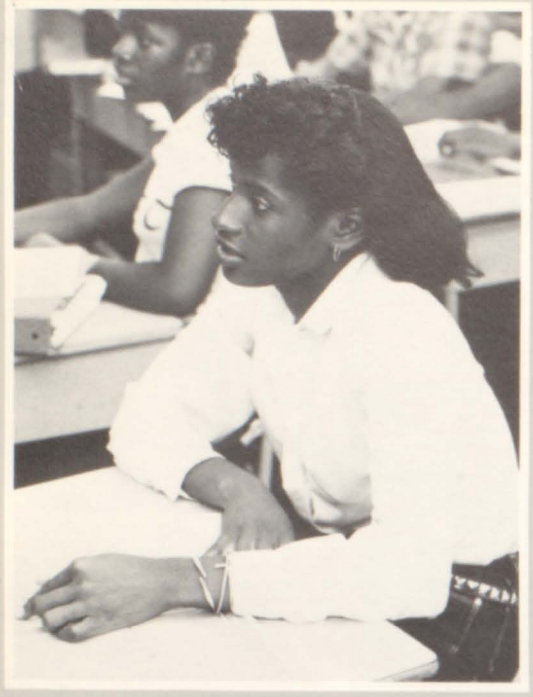

THE CLASS OF 1985

Good . . . better . . . best . . .
Never let it rest
Until your good is better
And your better is best.

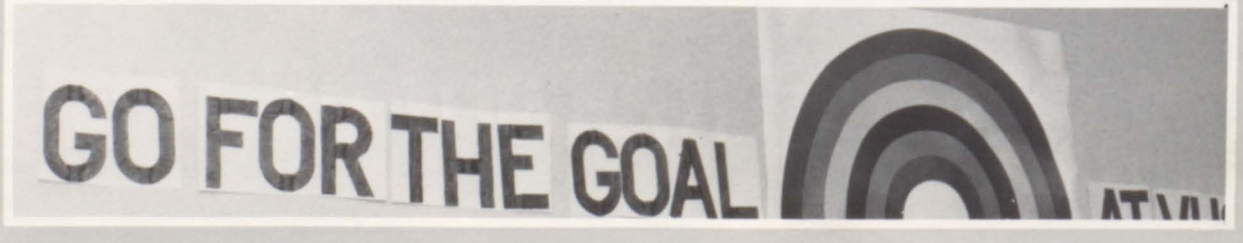

STRIVING . . .

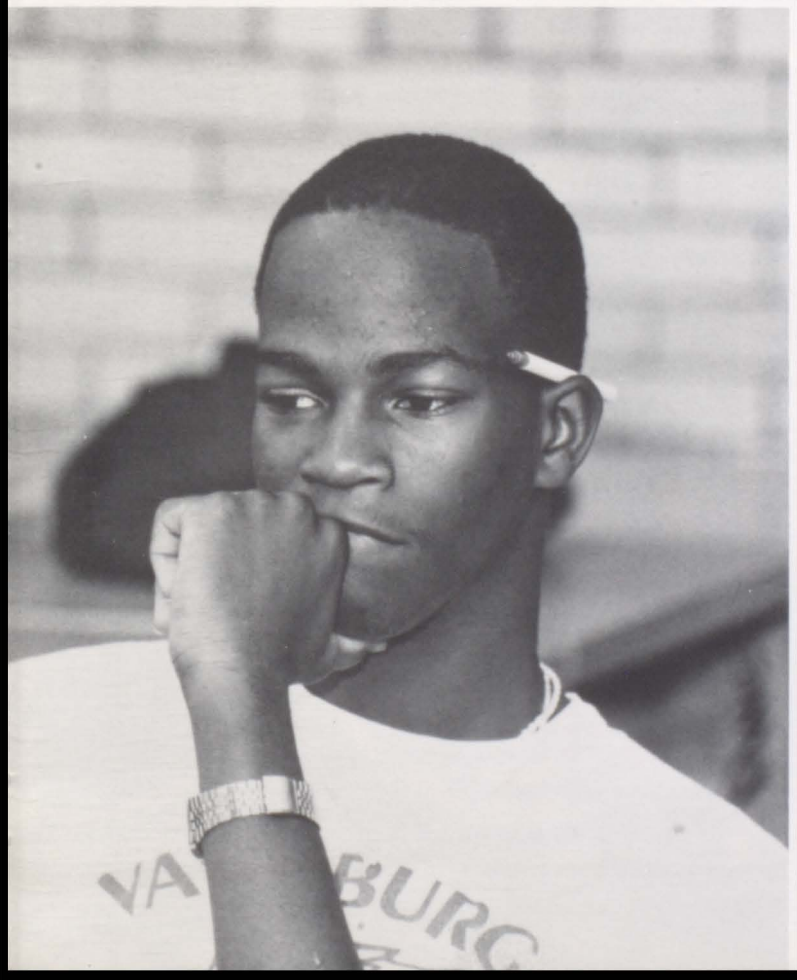

Wealth should be measured by the quality of one's life, not the quantity of one's cash.

One's stature should be measured by his/her capacity to use the six inches between each ear.

Greatness results when you strive to and become the best person you can possibly be.

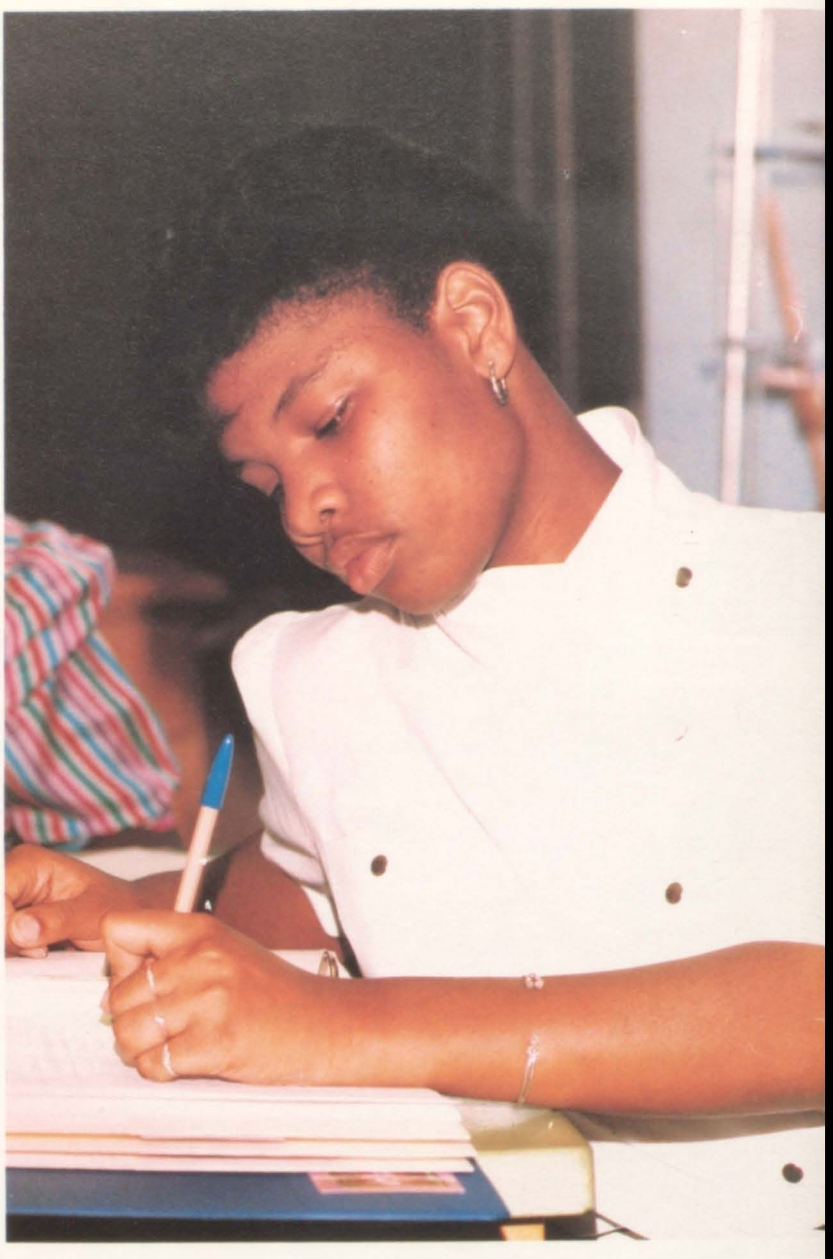

CONCEIVING . . .

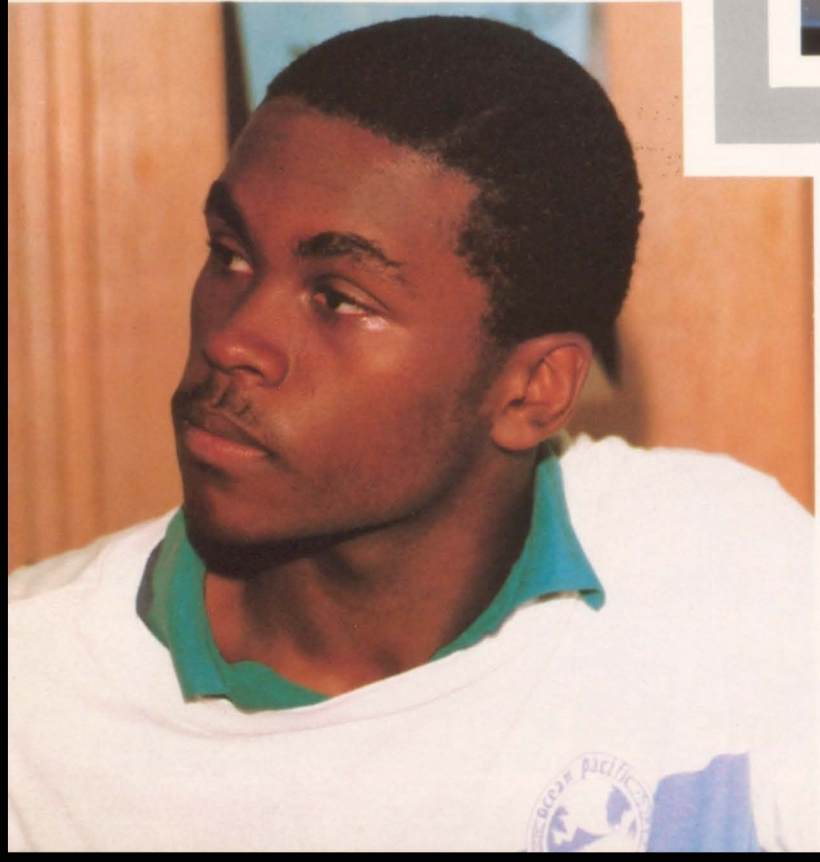

GROWING . . .

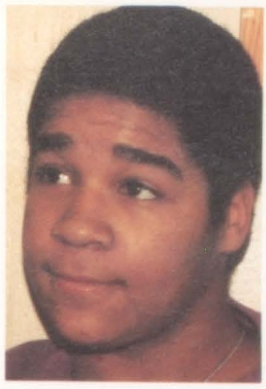

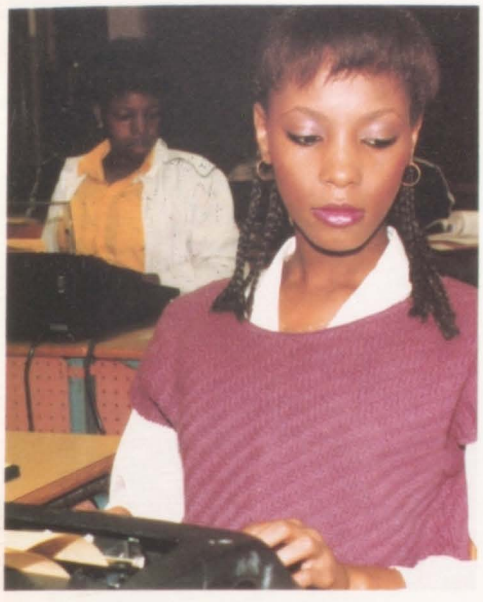

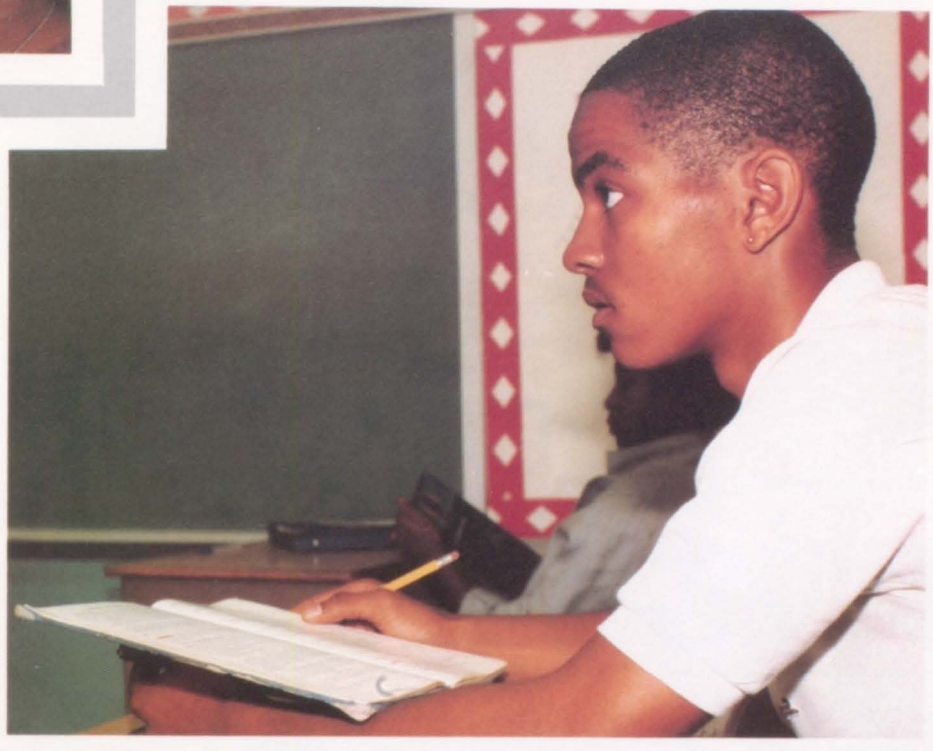

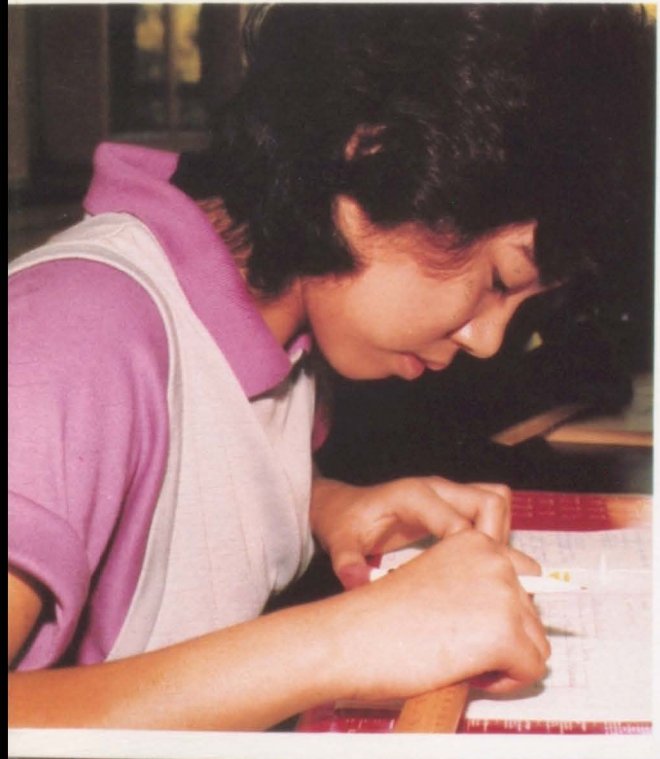

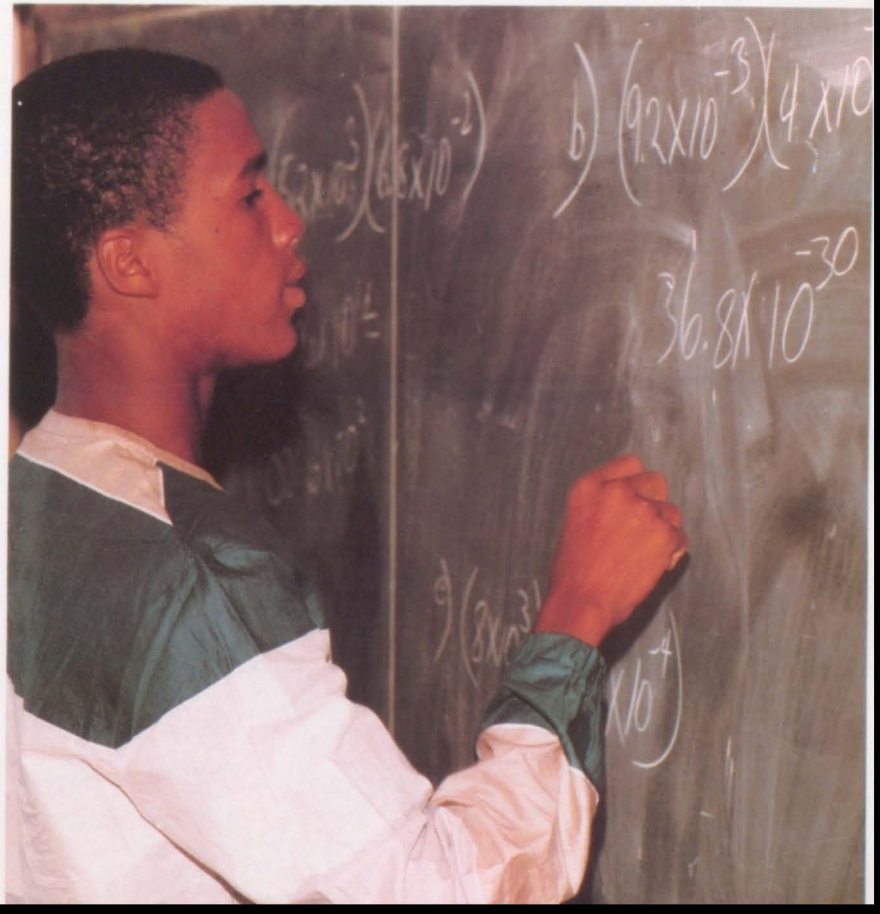

PROBING . . .

EXCELLING

WE'RE THE CREAM OF THE CROP

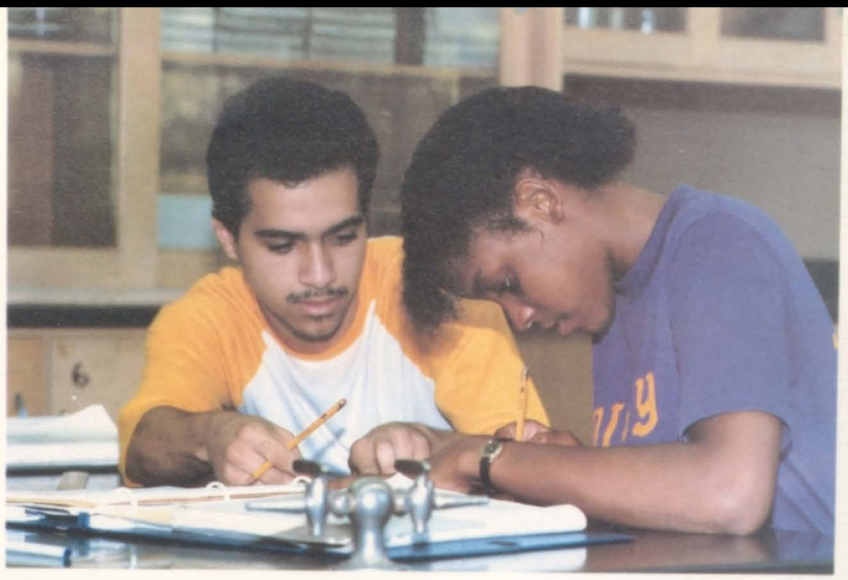

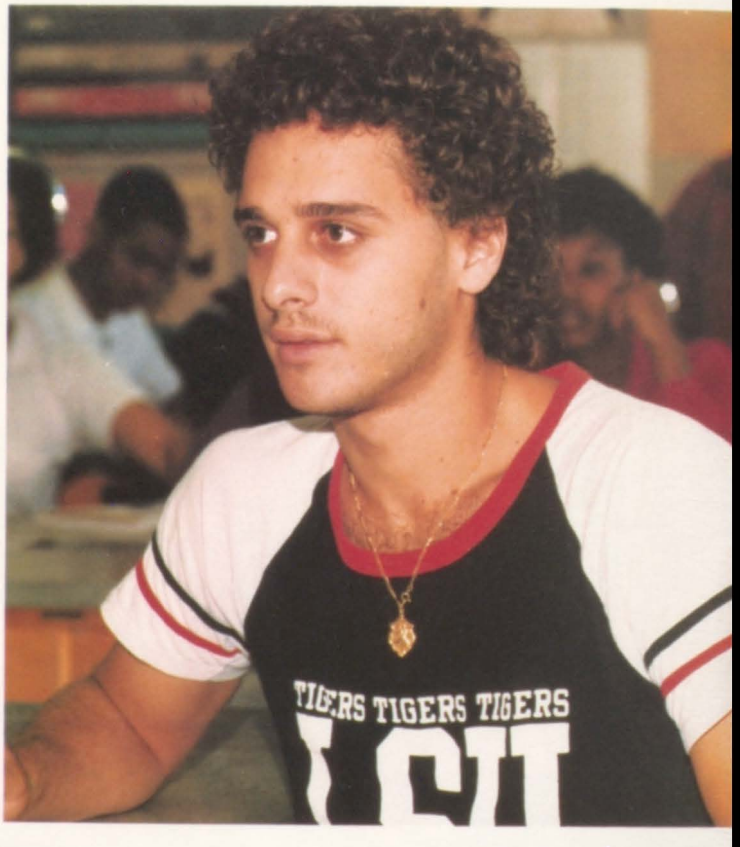

SEARCHING . . .

WITHIN THESE WALLS

Within these walls, as within our minds,
Linger lasting impressions of days left behind.
Our laughter, chatter and tears echo in the halls . . .
Batons, sneakers, books, tests and basketballs . . .
These memories we shall treasure.
The depth of our growth, who can measure?
Now that we've achieved our goal,
Let's continue to strive for the whole.
When we look back and our smiles remember . . .
The years we thought began in September . . .
No longer limited by the sky,
We bid Vailsburg our fondest good-bye.

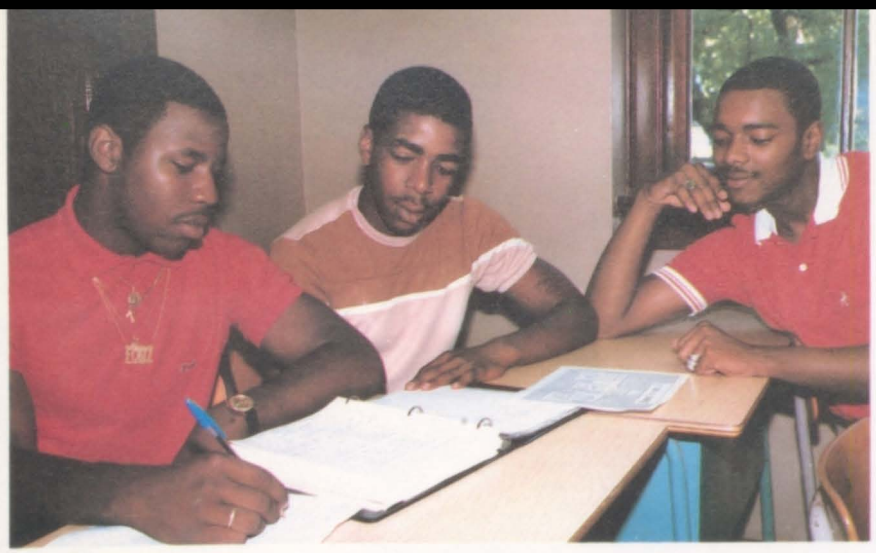

—Desreen Harris

Ms Chenita Newton

The Vailsburg H.S. Class of '85 will always be grateful to two outstanding women. Ms. Newton and Ms. Rice are two of the finest humans to ever inhabit the earth. We will never forget your timely rescue of a class in distress. We are certain that the Almighty will reward you for all you have done for us.

Ms. Glenda Rice

THANK YOU

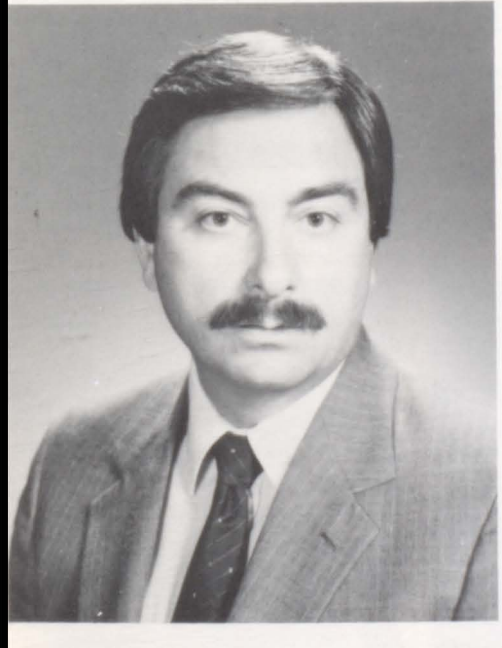

GO FOR THE GOAL!

Miss Theresa S. David
Principal

Inspired by the United States domination of the Olympics, Miss David set academic excellence as the goal for the 1984-85 school year. Like Dr. Benjamin Mays, whose ideas are quoted in this section, Miss David realizes the important of education.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Coach—Uh-er-r-ah— VICE PRINCIPAL BROWN was elevated from a member of the staff to serve as part of the administration.

THE CREAM ALWAYS RISES TO THE TOP

In case you were wondering . . . it's not as easy as it looks. But, I like it.

Good Morning!

Thank God for eagles!

More paper work???

I also do bulletin boards.

Now, that's a new one . . .

The Mod Squad?
Hit it? Me?

This is an "F" clef.

Lewis Latimer understood . . .

I've got an idea . . .

Me . . . teach Science???

Somebody has to do it.

We're behind you 100%

Yah, ah, ah-h-h!

TEACHERS ARE PEOPLE, TOO.

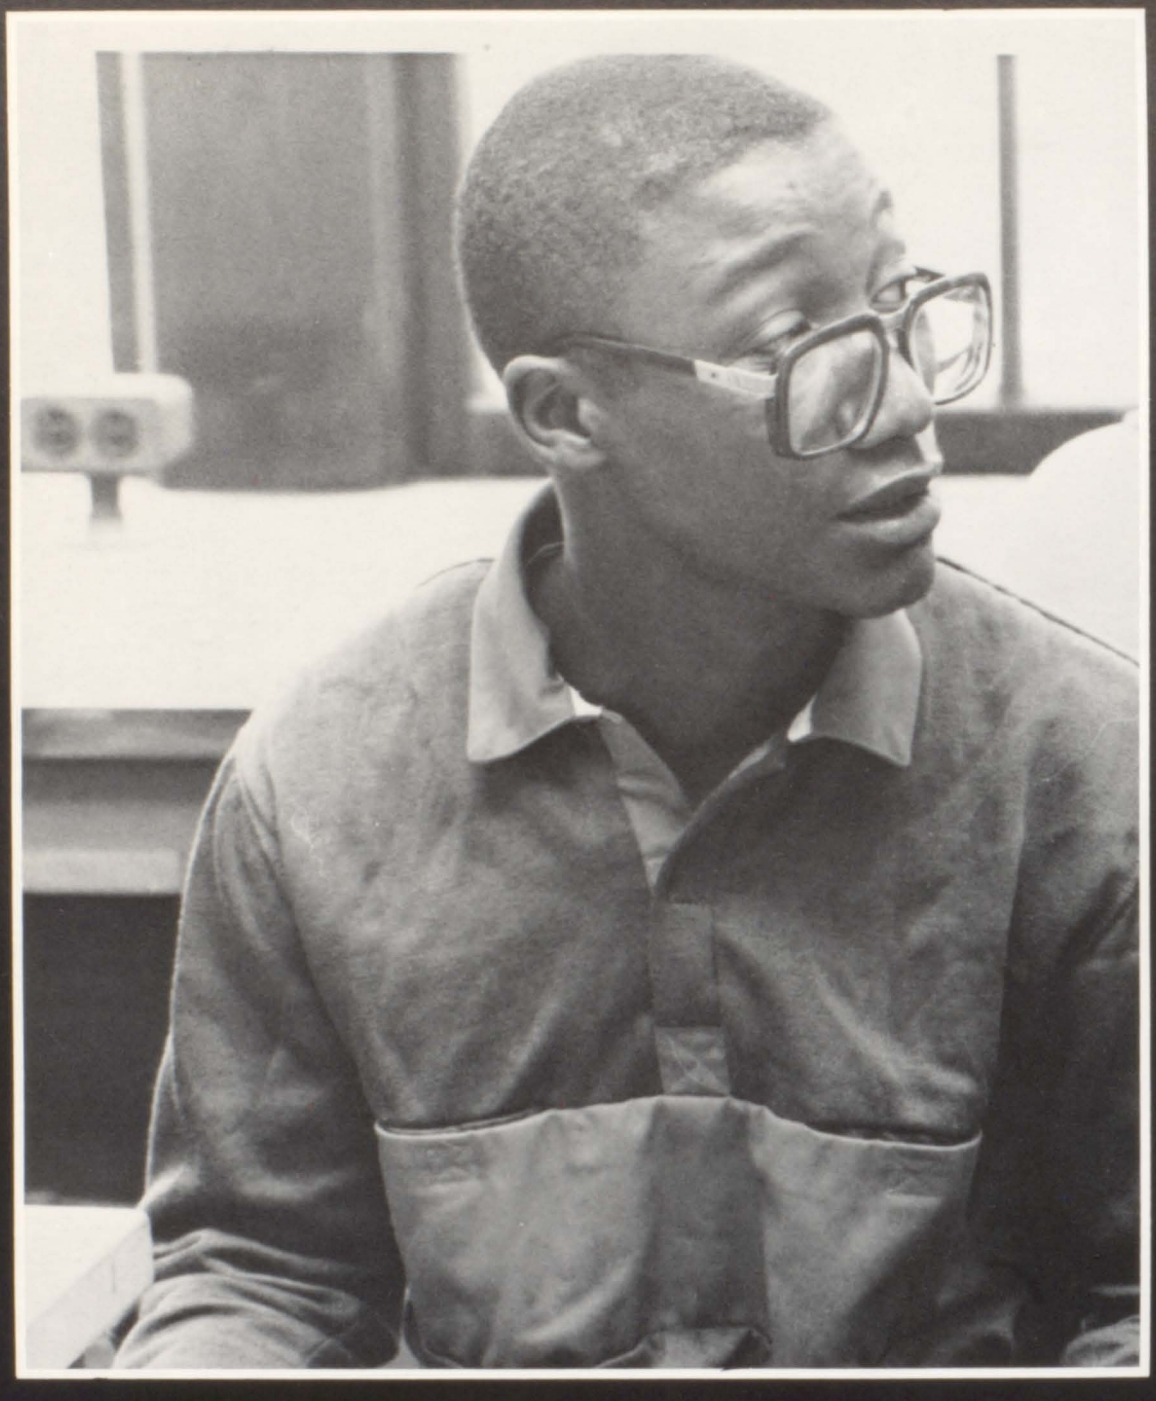

Just who wrote this note?

Actually, it's my lunch period.

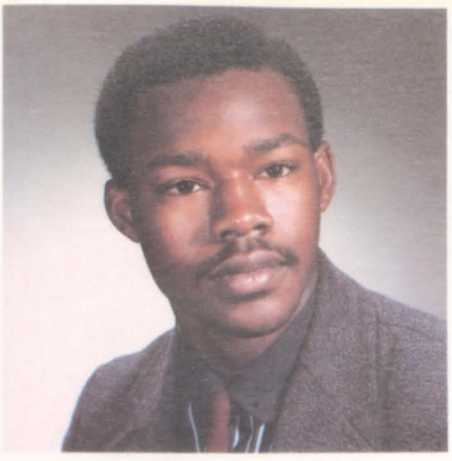

IN MEMORIAL

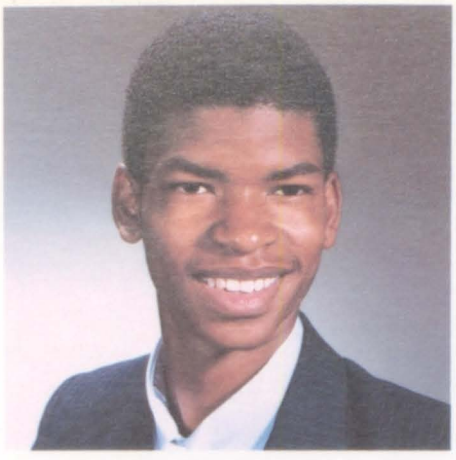

CHRIS JAMES

This page is dedicated to one of our classmates who died before he had a chance to live. His brief life serves as a reminder that we must do the most with the little time that we have on this earth. Life is so short . . . so precious . . .

We are certain that Chris wouldn't want us to be sad and gloomy. Instead, each of us should try to make the best of the time we have. None of us know how long we will live . . . DON'T JUST COUNT THE DAYS, MAKE THOSE DAYS COUNT.

THE VAILSBURG

"MAKING OUR GOOD BETTER

H.S. CLASS OF '85

AND OUR BETTER BEST"

QUEENS FOR A DAY

Homecoming this year was graced by five beautiful queens: MISS VAILSBURG, Gwendolyn Cohen; MISS SENIOR, Karen Hayes; MISS JUNIOR; Ivette Fernandez; MISS SOPHOMORE, Joanne Smith; MISS FRESHMAN, Lori Raney

PATRONS OF THE YEAR

The next eight pages are devoted to patrons whose donations defrayed the cost of our book.

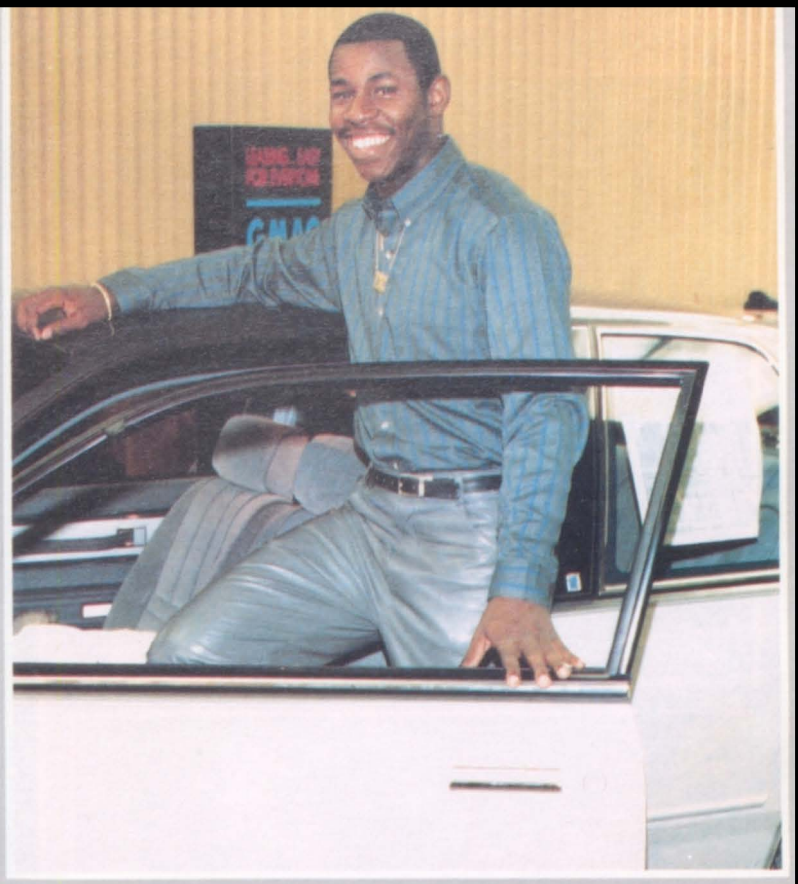

Lionel Brown is a Capricornian, with a goat-like nature.

Diana Taylor, a lovely Aquarian who is faithful and paradoxically unique.

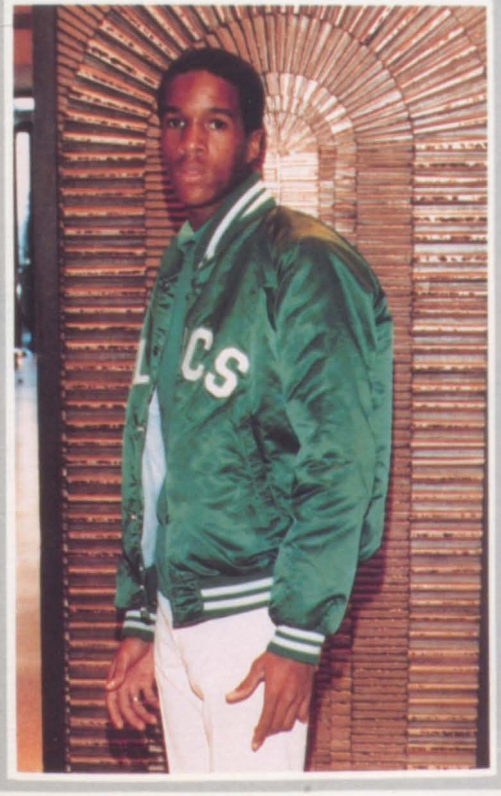

Yolanda Farmer and Alphonso Davis are the Pisceans who go with the flow.

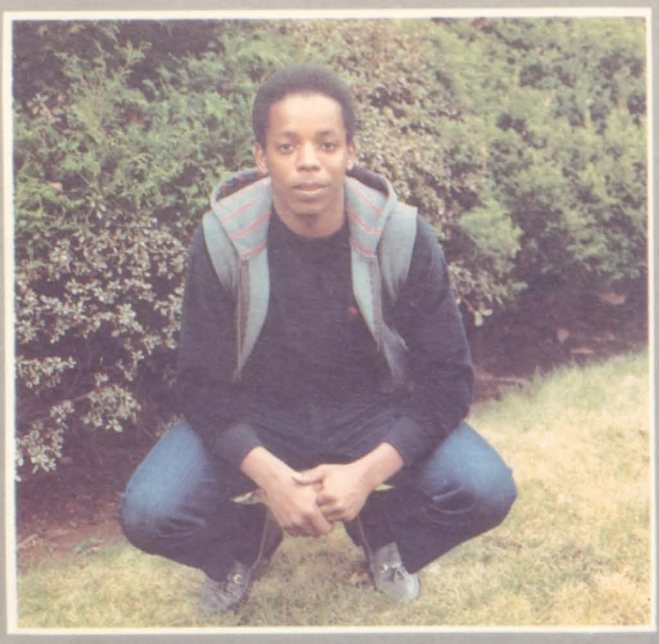

VINTAGE '85

Jamar Carter is an Arien--bursting with ideas and creative energy.

Terrye Lafayette is a typically artistic, esoteric, leisurely Piscean.

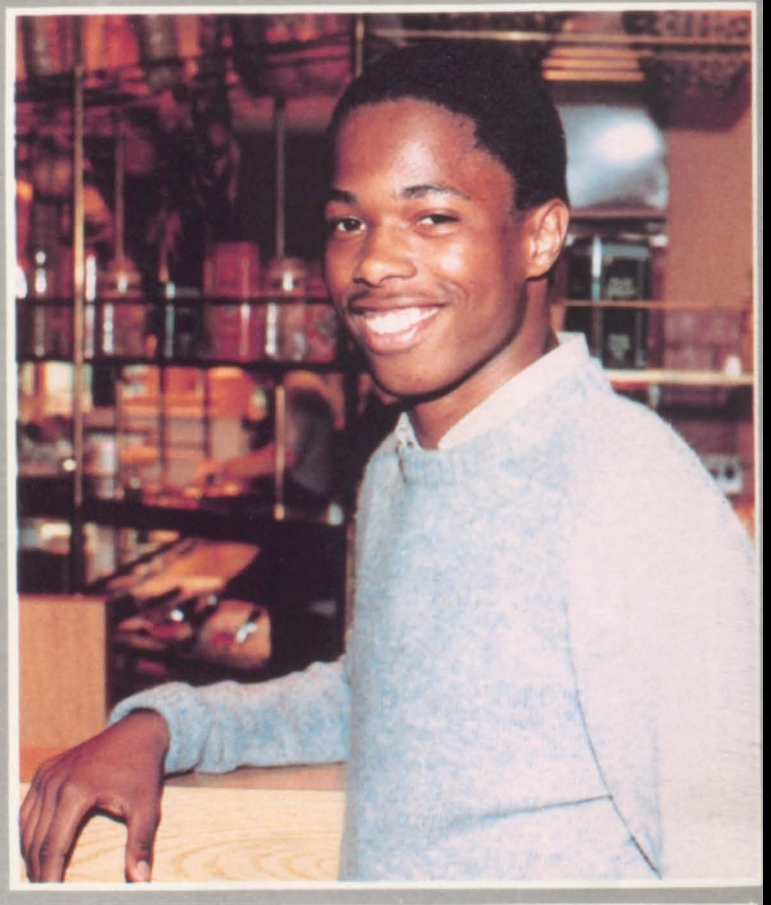

Steve Scott and Hope Jones are impulsive Ariens with warm personalities.

Nichella Deloach and Walter McDowell are Taureans whose charm and candor equal their wit and honesty.

Aaron Young and Diedra Simpkins have mercurial creativity, intelligence, and Geminian duality of interests.

Hope DeLoach and Keith Hughes are benign Cancerians.

Elonna Cook is a sentimental lioness whose regal manner typifies the vivacity of a Leo.

Ken Taylor has a restless spirit which symbolizes a Libran man.

Lisa Johnson, a Virgian, is a shy yet intensely determined young lady.

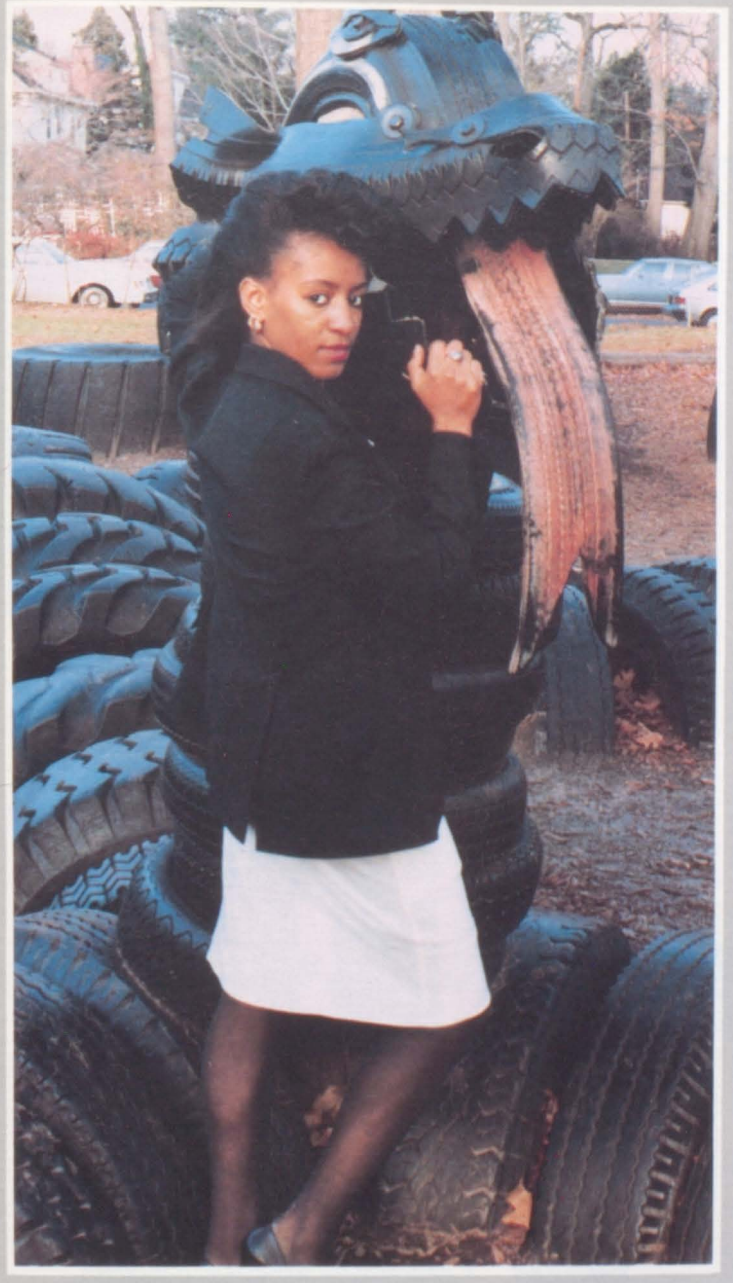

Karen Hayes is a Libran who weighs and balances life with the serenity of Venus.

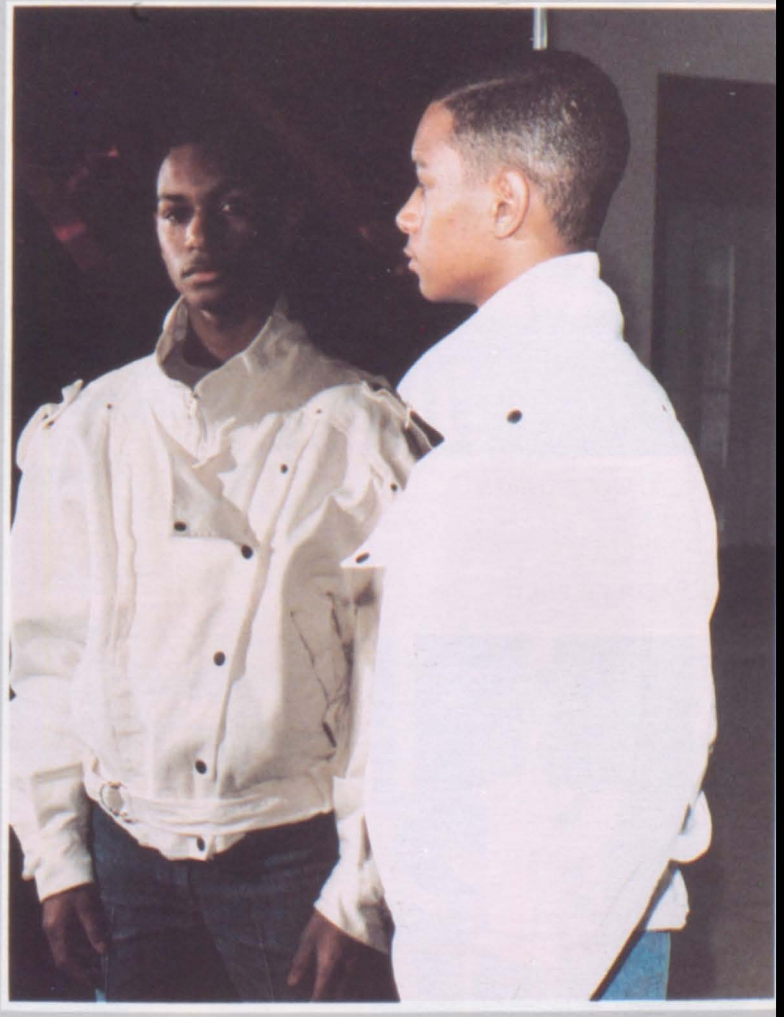

Donald White, at right is a Scorpio male who is passionate and intense about politics, work, friendship, religion, food, family, and life.

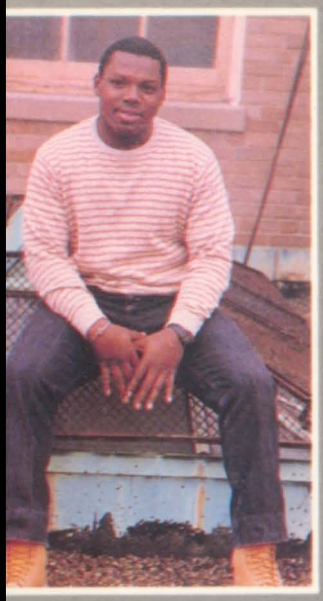

Valerie Scipio epitomizes the mysterious beauty of the Scorpio female. Typically, she is magnetic, proud and totally confident.

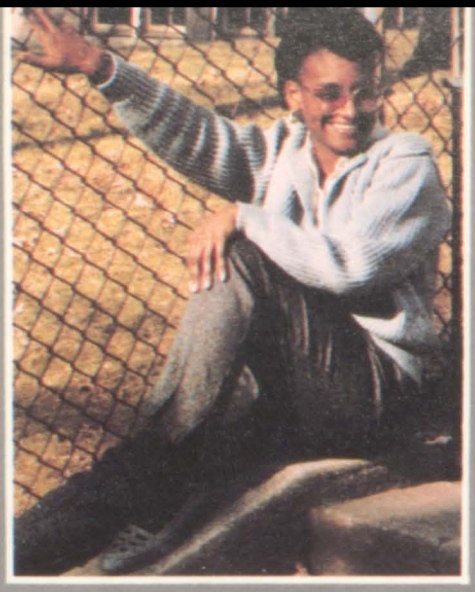

Daren Brown reflects the contagious curiosity and optimistic outlook of a Sagittarian.

We wish to thank those whose donations added color to our book.

The Capricorn smile . . .

Our underclassmen will continue to excel . . .
Of this we are confident and proud to tell.
And rest assured it will come to pass
That each in their time, will be a Class with class

No checks yet . . .

SOCCER IT TO 'EM

Jose definitely displays deft defense

Sometimes those on the bench are as important as those in the game.

Martinson Ansah, an excellent sweeper on defense was selected "Player of the Year" in Newark and second team All-Essex. Sampson Taiwo proved he was one of the best goalkeepers in New Jersey. Jhim Charles second most of our goals. We lost a heartbreaker to archrival East Side H.S. We'll get them next year.

INNER STRENGTH

. . . is the key to great runners. Although the dominance of an awesome East Side H.S. team was evident, Coach Tonero's charges amassed a fine record. Viking runners are respected throughout the State. This was a rebuilding year for our cross country team.

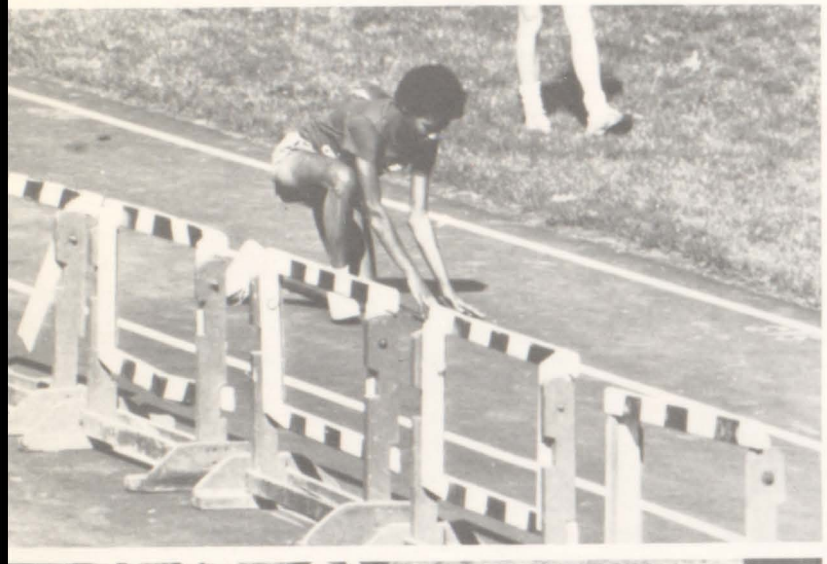

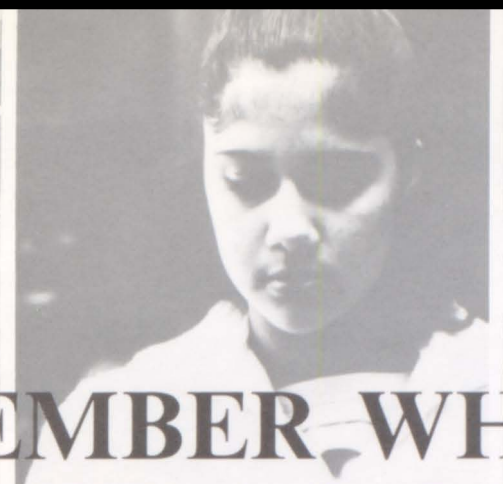

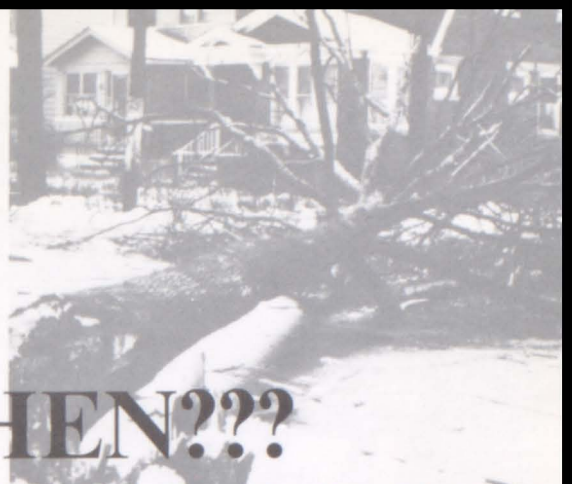

Sometimes you want to quit . . . The pains . . . in your back or chest or legs . . . But you must hold on . . . Then . . . somehow . . . along comes that second wind and you're off . . . like a gazelle again.

REMEMBER WHEN???

Oh well, President Reagan's ray-gun stunned Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro as he won four more years, and shuttled us into "Star Wars". Jeers . . . Cheers . . . Tears. Meanwhile, Jesse Jackson captured the hearts and minds of the world . . . Oh how he whirled. Nice try . . . sigh. But our spirits were lifted by a spry sprite named Mary Lou Retton . . . As Edwin Moses continued to dominate . . . When the gymnastics, swim and volleyball teams made us palpitate. The United States reigned supreme at the XXIIIrd Olymkpiad until a refree cheated Evander Holyfield. Zola Budd— typifying South Africa's interference with the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness in the world— tripped Mary Decker's hope for the gold. Do it Carl Lewis and Greg Luganis! Yuri Andropou slipped away mysteriously . . . Here comes and there goes Chernenko. Marvin Gaye died tragically . . . "Aint That Pecular?" "What's Goin' On?" Ooh, ooh, wooh, ooh, we're "Missing You". Finally, the Marines left Lebanon . . . not a death too soon. We were struck with sadness over the McDonald's massacre madness. Indira Gandhi was assassinated and Margret Thatcher's hotel was bombed. A famine effecting 20 million people . . . Ethiopians starved . . . walking boneyards . . . malnurished graveyards and a reminder that we should be thankful. El Salvador and Nicaragua are still hotbeds. The Discovery mission retrieved two satelites and a woman walked in space. William Schroeder accepted an artificial heart. Baby Fae's death made monkeys of us all. Boy George is trying to decide which to be. Did you see his hair cut? The Jacksons toured us to Victory. Where's Michael's other glove? . . . Probably lost in the fire . . . Sorry Mickey, Brooke, and Emanuel. We lost William "Count" Basie, Sekou Toure, Richard Burton, Frank Church and Truman Capote. Irwin Shaw died sweating over every word but Jim Fixxed us when he died jogging. We'll only hear Ethel Merman's voice on tapes and wax now. Was Eleanor Bumphers murdered in the name of the law? Make up your mind Koch! Somehow Dan Marino's Dolphins were upstaged by a wiry Joe Montana and the 49ers in the Super Bowl. The Celtics reigned as Larry did the Bird so Red could light another against the Lakers. It was the Magic and Sampson show at the All Star game. And the NBA's leading rookie was Michael "Air" Jordan, the Olympic hero. The Detroit Tigers pounced on the Padres for the World Series Championship. Remember the Magic Flutie from BC? How about that Hoya In-Your-Face-Let's-Destroyah team from Georgetown? John Thompson became the first Black coach to win the NCAA Division I Basketball Championship. Dynasty and Falcon Crest joined Dallas. When Eddie Murphy left NBC, Saturday Night was no longer live . . . Oh yeah . . . almost forgot about Jesse's night. The Bill Cosby Show renewed hope in Family television . . . Hey, Hey, Hey! Rap on! Desmond Tutu won the Nobelist prize . . . Watch out! Remember Dr. King? Speaking of whom . . . Happy Birthday To Ya! Even if we had to officially wait two years as Reagan pouted. Tragedy in Bhopal . . . who's to blame? Vanessa was dethroned by pornographic revelations. Bernhard Hugo Goetz-off — was he vigil or a killer? A bronze memorial saluted Vietnam's fallen soldiers . . . More jeers, cheers and tears. The "Ghostbusters" logo made a mint. Wonder if the "Killing Fields" gave us a hint? Axel Foley was an awesome "Beverly Hill's Cop". Watch out for the "Gremlins". Prince's reign was Purple. Morris Day's "Time" has come. "The Avenging Angel" hooked us . . . Breakin I & II made us boogaloo. But, "Beat Street" told the story. "A Soldiers Play — uh-h-rra — Story" by Charles Fuller was a thriller. "Nightmare on Elm Street" scared us to death. "The Terminator" made us gasp for breath. Marvelous Marvin is still knocking folk out . . . Hagler made Hitman Hearns pout in their bout. Hey! "Where's the beef?" Why isn't a Whopper 99¢ anymore? Central High's whole football team was inelligble . . . uhmph, uhmph, uhmpht! Dr. Salley was replaced by Dr. Foti who was replaced by Mr. Campbell . . . Janet Jackson escaped with James DeBarge to get hitched . . . Here comes the baby. We're still dodging dog mess on the way to school. Lionel Richie is richer after six more awards. Hello! Hulk Hogan, Mike Rotundo and Barry Whindum are for real. Wendy Ricter was cheated out of her belt. Don't tangle with Tito Santana, Andre the Giant, Tonya Kid, Jimmy "Superfly" Snuka or Junk Yard Dog. Dayglo green on computer screens with micro-chips on PC's in home and school. A braided Livingstone Bramble may have Boom • Boom—ed Mancini with Voodoo. Oscar winner Lou Gossett, Jr. portrayed Egypt's fallen hero in "Sadat" — a reminder that Anwar was of Nubian descent. Once we've learned that "We Are The World" we may shrink the globe. It's time for us to stop the Apartheid of racist South Africa . . . by any means necessary! Money talks. Under Governor Kean, New Jersey has become one of America's wealthiest states. We hope the Go-bots and Transformers will teach the children, our future leaders, that the struggle of good over evil is necessary. The world is breaking up . . . breaking up . . . But we can rebuild it.

POINT . . . COUNTERPOINT

THE DEBATE TEAM is serious business. Debaters wrestle with words rather than wrists. You don't have much time to ponder. To make your point, you must be articulate, factual and inquistive. Our debaters possess all of these qualities thanks to their fine advisor. This year our Debate Team sponsored a competition with high schools from New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

"History is written by the winners" — Alex Haley

History is a narrative, a story of the life and development of a people, country or institution. It is written or verbal tales of the culture and traditions, the tears and laughter, the struggles and triumphs, the pain and the joy of human existence.

The History of Afro-American of Black people began, naturally, in Africa — a continent three times larger than the United States. We are as much a part of history as the sun is a part of every day.

Black History is rooted in the tales of King Solomon, and the Queen of Sheba; Cleopatra (who taught Julius Caesar, to play backgammon on the Nile); the Nubian gold of King Tut's mask and coffin (which continues to fascinate millions and confounds the "experts") . . . How about St. Augustine's religious tennents or the music of Ludwig Von Beethoven, "the Moor of Bonn" . . . yes, they were Black, too.

Black History includes Aesop's Fables and Chaka, the mighty Zulu King . . . Haven't you heard of Haile Selassi? What about Alexandre Dumas or Robert Browning?

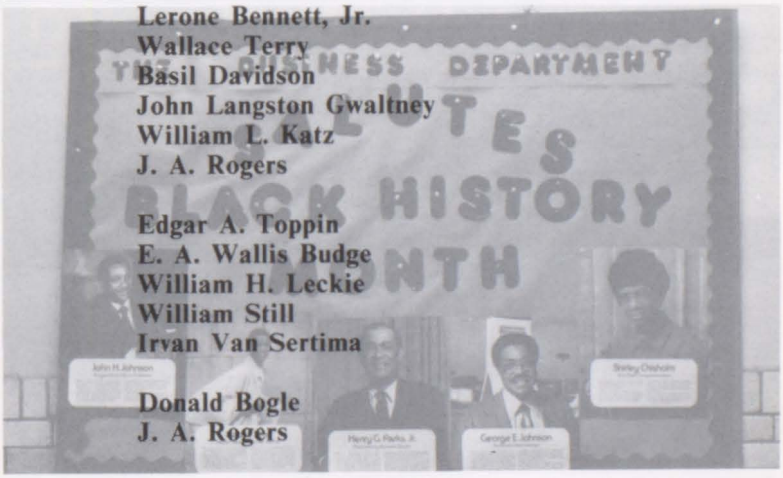

Despite the shackles of slavery in America, Black people continued to excel . .. Oliver Cromwell crossed the Delaware in George Washington's boat; Robert Smalls and gallant band of former slaves stole the planter (a Southern ironclad ship) and gave it to Union forces . . . 200,000 Blacks fought valiantly to secure a Northern victory over the Confederates and, more importantly, their freedom. Jan Ernst Matzeliger developed a shoe machine; Garrett Morgan invented the traffic light and a gas mask . . . Lewis Latimer, the filament to light Edison's bulb.

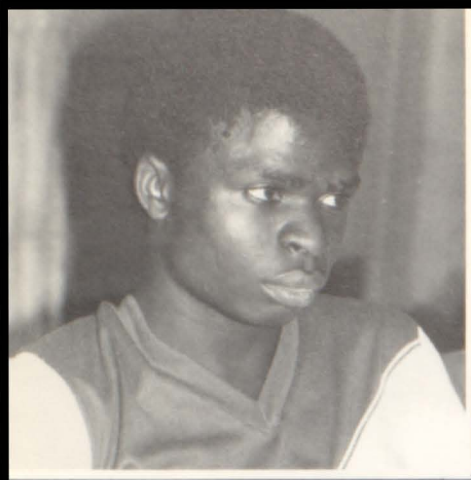

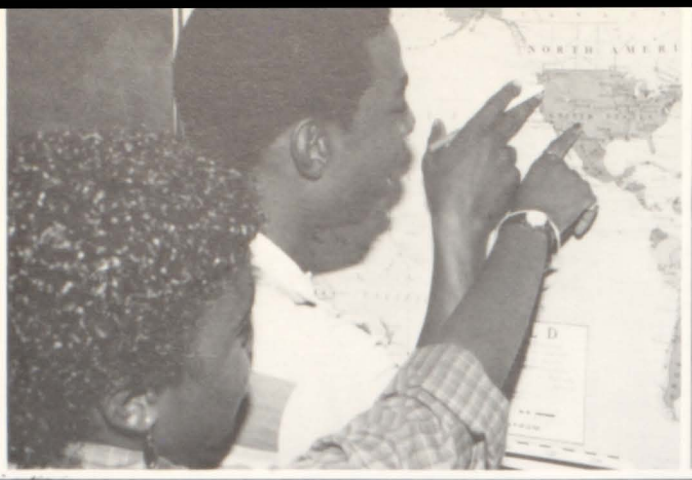

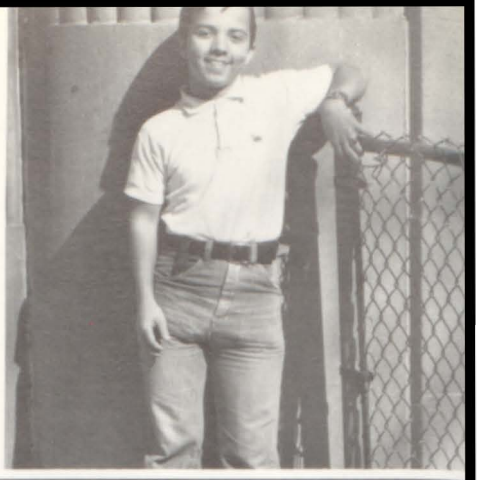

Black History is the tap dancing toes of Bojangles and the Nicholas Brothers; John Cultrane's soulful sax; Motown; the Apollo Theater; the compositions of Duke Ellington and Quincy Jones . . . How about Marvin Gaye, The Supremes, Nat Cole, The Temptations, Lionel Richie and Michael Jackson? Ray Charles and Stevie Wonder see more with their fingers and words than many of us who have our vision. It is the roles of Sidney Poiter and Esther Rolle . . . It is the blood of Medgar Evers and Dr. Martin Luther King . . . It is the humor of Bill Cosby and Eddie Murphy. It is the struggle of Jesse Jackson for the presidency, as well as the stories of common folk like you and me. Note:* We have accidentally-on-purpose left out a myriad of Black *he*roes and *she*roes in this narrative. It is imperative that you discover, treasure and pass our history to ensuing generations.

"There is no Future for a people who deny their past" Adam Clayton Powell

SONNET I

Love can be just like a swan,
That doesn't make a splash or wave,
But swims and floats from dusk till dawn,
And keeps itself from cold dark caves.

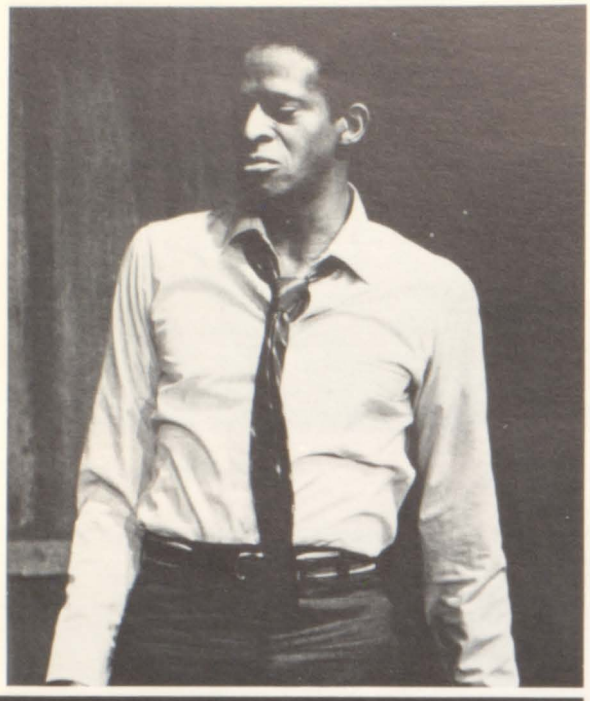

Love can comfort and protect,
Can lead and guide and help you too,
Yet this is when you least suspect,
Can give correction when it's due.

Love can be growth for the mind,
Can strengthen you soul and heart,
Tender, warm and kind, you'll find,
And you might wonder where to start.

Love, in time, can flourish and grow,
And if you believe, this you'll know.
